Dear Servas members worldwide,

Servas Russia is honored and happy to invite you to our Servas Meeting (RSM).

The meeting will be held from 8th to 13th August 2020.

We shall be very happy to have you with us, sharing an enjoyable and educational week of social activities, getting to know the real Russian culture and daily life together with beautiful cities and nature areas of the Ural hills, having also the chance to meet old and new friends from around the world.

Our theme for the meeting will be "Complete immersion in the Russian everyday life". Complete immersion in the Russian everyday life is the only way to truly understand Russian's soul and spirit.

Those who have been part of previous meeting will know what a wonderful experience it is, to be part of such an international event where people from many nationalities, languages and cultures come together from across the world.

In addition, the participants will enjoy the known Ural Russian generous soul, food, drinks, culture, churches, nature, banya (like sauna) and more.

The meeting will take place in Sverdlovsk region, Krasnoufimsk district, which is the recreation center "Express" (10 km from Krasnoufimsk town, 215 km from Yekaterinburg – the capital of the Ural and 1800 km or 2 hours of flight from Moscow).

Sverdlovsk Oblast is one of the 89 Russian regions. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sverdlovsk_Oblast
It is situated in the Ural Mountains and its capital is Yekaterinburg, formerly known as Sverdlovsk.

It's mainly a hilly country with few high peaks.

The population is more than 4 million with a diversity of not less than 148 ethnic groups.

Among them Russians, Tatars, Ukrainians, Bashkirs, Mary, Germans, Azerbaijanis, Udmurts, Belarusians, Chuvash, Armenians, Tajiks, Uzbeks, Jews and more.

The Krasnoufimsk district itself is situated on the South-West of the Sverdlovsk region. Its population of 33,000 consists of 62% Russians, 20% Tatars and 16% Mary. During the meeting we will have the chance to meet their culture and daily life.

Some additional information and facts about Russia and the Ural area

Russia is a diverse and mysterious country. The "pulse" of Russia and its people is vastly different depending on the regions. We invite you to visit the Ural. Ural is one of the safest places in Russia.

There are no earthquakes, floods and other natural disasters.

There are so many good reasons to visit the beautiful Ural area and among them:

1. Early Ural was the Permskysea. You can come and find here the fossils of mollusks. The meeting plan includes a visit to find them by ourselves.

2. A trip to the Urals - a chance to be in two different continents at the same time since the Ural mountains do not belong to Europe nor to Asia. It is a barrier between them.

3. Here were assassinated the last Russian Tsar Nicholas II and his family. There is a memorial site in the local monastery. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nicholas_II_of_Russia

4. Boris Yeltsin, the 1st Russian President was born here.

5. Fidel Castro visited the Ural In 1963.

6. Ural is the main place of extraction of precious stones.

7. In 2002 UNESCO has recognized the capital of Ural, Yekaterinburg, as one of the 12 ideal cities in the world. <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yekaterinburg>

8. The legacy of the Soviet Union and contrasting modernity can both be found there.

9. Here is a mixture of nationalities. Kind people who always welcome guests and tourists.

10. The Ural nature is often compared to the Switzerland one.

11. Ural is an opportunity to access large Russia.
